

JACKSON & PARTNERS EXPANDS ITS ALL-STAR SIGNATURE SIDELINERS LINE OF SEAFOOD PRODUCTS WITH ALIGATOR READY-TO-EAT MEALS

FOR IMMEDIATE RELEASE

(Illinois, November 16, 2020)

Jackson & Partners, an importer and processor of high-quality, sustainably-sourced food products, has expanded its All-Star Signature Sideliners products to include Globalimar's Aligator brand of ready-to-eat seafood meals.

As a leader in multiple center-of-the-plate categories, Jackson & Partners is pleased to offer customers authentic, chef-inspired recipes through its partnership with Globalimar, known for their expertise in frozen seafood manufacturing and commitment to using only MSC and ASC certified seafood.

Jackson & Partners and Globalimar are coming together to create this new partnership in ready-to-eat seafood meals.

"Globalimar and Jackson & Partners share a passion for providing customers with great-tasting, high caliber products, so this is a winning relationship for both our companies," commented Vincent "Bo" Jackson, the CEO of Jackson & Partners, LLC.

"Jackson and Partners is the perfect fit for us in combining our R&D and manufacturing capabilities with Jackson & Partners' all-star sales and marketing professionals," stated Daniel Ortiz, Retail & Global Sales Director of Globalimar.

"After more than two years of R&D in partnership with Fundacion Alicia, our ready-to-eat meals are ready for expansion globally. Chef Marc Puig-Pey led our kitchen team to find food solutions for children and adults with food restrictions so that they can eat great-tasting food that is healthy and sustainable."

Jackson added, "We're proud to co-brand a product line that embodies both of our company's core values of food sustainability and innovation in the marketplace."

This is a tremendous opportunity to bring Globalimar's ready-to-eat meals to hungry consumers throughout the country.

Look for the All-Star Signature Sideliners and Aligator co-branded seafood products at a grocery store near you.
